

Shaping Futures

Changing Lives

St Joseph's Primary School has been working with Carmel College for several years as one of their Partnership schools and we have built up a strong working relationship with them; supporting the development of outstanding teachers. We are hoping that our partnership will only become stronger now we are part of Nicholas Postgate Catholic Academy Trust.

Carmel Teacher Training Partnership CTP

Carmel Teacher Training Partnership (CTTP) is based at Carmel College Darlington, which is an outstanding 11-18 Catholic Academy working with many schools across the North East.

An Overview of their Programme:

'Our Initial Teacher Training takes candidates under the School Centred Initial Teacher Training (SCITT) and School Direct programmes and provides a great alternative to training through a university. Because our training is school based, we provide you with practical, job based learning from the start. As you are working in a school, you are also much more likely to get a job at the end of your training. In fact, over 90% of our trainees go on to secure a teaching role. At CTTP, we have been inspiring the next generation of teachers for over 18 years and now provide Initial Teacher Training to over 110 trainees every year. We now work with 7 lead schools throughout the North East, successfully training primary and secondary teachers in all subject areas. We are based in one of the top performing schools in the country and pursue excellence in all we do. We value each individual and ensure each trainee can achieve their full potential.'
